

Student Information Management System

Version - 2.0

Overview

The Student Information Management System (SIMS) is useful to manage information of educational institutes. It is a web based solution which makes it easy to integrate different parties accessible to system. System supports managing candidate information, student Information, academic Course and examination, scholarships and all aspects related to student related activities of an education institute. The system can be customized according to the customer requirement.

Features

- Store candidate information.
- Handling placement tests and interviews.
- Student registration.
- Student payment.
- Facility to generate Student Identity Card (SID).
- Facility to generate Barcode for each student ID card.
- Facility to handle Academic programs (courses) and subjects.
- Maintaining & handling payment of Courses.
- Students' examination information.
- Marks analyzing.
- Final result handling & publishing.
- Parents have Privileges to view student profile via the internet.
- User control panel to manage system users and their authentications.
- Facility to customize the system according to the client's requirement.
- Can be generated various kinds of reports as customer needs.

Technology

- Programming language - ASP.NET , DBMS - MySql

Target Market: All kinds of Educational institutes (Universities/Education Institutes/ Schools etc)